LISTENER REVIEWS

"I'm new in my bourbon journey by about 6 months. Listening to these fellows weekly has helped me choose and expand my collection to well over 4 dozen bottles. I always take one or two of your top recommendations and add it to my list. If this keeps up I may soon be headed to divorce court to gain custody of my collection. Keep up the good work guys!!"

"If you are into bourbon, or always had questions, give these guys a listen. They don't claim to be experts, but they provide a relatable, easy to understand review on bourbons they stumble across as they hunt across the Midwest."
