Application agreement: Parent / Guardian

I_____ agree to follow the statements listed below as a guardian / parent of the student at Columbia International School.

□ To have a positive attitude in my family towards CIS education, the school, and the teachers.
□ To teach my child to have an interest in their life in and out of the school community and to pursue it.
□ To make sure that the student goes to school and concentrates on his/her studies.
□ To encourage my child to lead a well-regulated life, and to provide adequate disciplines of the student's language, attitude, and manners.
□ To encourage my child to appreciate other peoples' characters, positions, interests, and belongings.
□ To take responsibility for the well-being of my child along with the legal responsibility.
□ To give permission to CIS to use photographs or video pictures of my child's school performances with or without name recognition on school brochures, homepage, or other school publications for school development.
□ To recognize accept and support without objection the responsibility and final decision of the principal of C.I.S. to determine compulsory, elective, optional and substitute courses of each student's curriculum.
□ To understand that the school does not offer dietary options for those who have medical and/or religious conditions, and that my child is responsible for dietary management for the above reasons.
□ To support GOT (Guidance Overseas Trip) and pay the fees in advance.
□ To understand and follow the school fee conditions and the refund policy.

I have read, understand and accept all the above conditions.
If I fail to abide by the above conditions, I understand that I have no recourse for disciplinary action taken by the school.
