BUCCANEERS TAKE LAST FROM ROBINS

Subdue the Superbas by 11 to 4, Making Series an Even Break.

Special to The New York Times.

PITTSBURGH, Penn., May 18.—The Pittsburgh Pirates sent the Brooklyns away tonight on an even split for the series by stinging them with a 11 to 4 defeat, in a game that amounted to a farce at the finish. After the Buccaneers had garnered eleven runs off the weak pitching of Griner and Grimes, Miller of the home team got careless in the ninth inning and on four hits and two glaring errors by the Pirate fielders the Brooklyns tallied four runs. These came on singles by Olson, Daubert, and Johnston and a triple by Schmandt. In all the other innings Miller mowed down the Superbas with very little trouble.

The Pirates got after Griner heavily in the third inning, when Archer was passed to begin with, followed by Bigbee's double, Mollwitz's single, a double by Carey, and Stengel's single, the last two players staging the double steal. In the fourth inning they kept up their cannonading on Dan Griner, another run coming on Archer's triple and Bigbee's single.

Burleigh Grimes, the former Pirate, then relieved Griner, and what the Pirates did to their former teammate was a shame. Four hits, three stolen bases, a walk, a hit batsman, a wild pitch, and an error netted five runs and settled all chances of the visiting team.

The Buccaneers weren't done, however, and scored another run in the sixth inning on two hits and another double steal, which they seemed to be able to pull off without any trouble. In the eighth inning Carey got his fifth hit and tallied when Casey Stengel hit to the score board for three bases.

Carey's all around playing was the feature of the game. In the seventh inning he made a very difficult catch off Johnston's bat and threw to first in time to double up Myers, who had singled just previously.

The Brooklyns and Pirates will play an exhibition game at Meyers Lake, Canton, Ohio, tomorrow.
