

$5,000 DEMOISELLE STAKES TO CRESTA

Whitney Filly Easily Beats Suweep at Yonkers—Stew- ards Bar Tribune's Entry.

Cresta, Harry Payne Whitney's fine chestnut daughter of Whiskbroom II., who took her post temporarily at the head of the division of two-year-old fillies by capturing the Fashion Stakes at Belmont Park early in June, confirmed her tenure of the position yesterday afternoon at the Empire City track by galloping off with the $5,000 Demoiselle Stakes in the easiest possible manner. The Rancocas Stable's Suweep, wearied under her top weight imposition of 110 pounds, which was also the allotment of Cresta, staggered across the finish line two or three lengths behind the winner, her early advantage enabling her to save the place from the victor's stablemate, Twaddle, which closed from far back in the stretch like a young whirlwind.

W. J. Salmon's El Dorado made the early pace, with Suweep lapped upon the Ultimus filly, and Bud Fisher's Brocade and Cresta close behind. With four furlongs of the five-and-a-half-furlong trip covered, El Dorado hung out distress signals and folded up, relinquishing the pilot's task for an instant to Suweep. On the turn into the stretch Cresta came around the leaders and drew to the front as the field of eight young racers straightened out for the decisive dash. All the rest of the journey the Whitney youngster was in easy command of the situation and she was only breezing in the last furlong.

Had Cresta been pressed by any genuine opposition in the last stages of the race it is probable that she would have equaled, at least, the record for the event, which is 1:07, established by the Brookside Stable's Coquette in 1914 and duplicated by the Oneck Stable's Tragedy two years later. As it was, the Whitney star went the route on a track in only fair condition in 1:07 3-5, the same time made last season by R. J. Brown's My Reverie in winning the tenth running of the stakes. The winner's share of the money yesterday was $3,710. The Whitney pair was favored in the betting at around 7 to 5.

Easy Victory for Bon Homme.

Ray Jay and Comic Song were scratched from the small field of entrants for the Tuckahoe Handicap, leaving only the Xalapa Farm's Bon Homme and Mrs. Louise Viau's Billy McLaughlin to take the prescribed journey of a mile and seventy yards. This reduced the affair to merely a practice canter for Bon Homme, which raced to the top in the first quarter and breezed there for the remainder of the way. The victor was held at a prohibitive price by the memory brokers.

The Debut Purse, a five furlong scamper for maiden two-year-olds, which opened the afternoon's sport, was taken by Walter J. Salmon's Vigil in a finish of the hair-raising variety. The chestnut son of Jim Gaffney was close to the pace, set by the Rancocas Stable's fleet Satellite, for the entire race, and came on in the stretch, under a hard drive by Butwell, to outgame the Hildreth youngster at the very end and win by a short nose. The latter had all his speed, but hung in the closing strides. High Chief, the Riviera Stable's colt, slipped through on the rail at the head of the stretch and finished third, lapped upon the leaders.

The hot tip of the race, the Greentree Stable's Broomstick colt, Moonraker, was shuffled back at the far turn and ran greenly thereafter, but finished just outside the money. This youngster was heavily played at 2 to 1. Satellite was favorite at 9 to 5.

Tribune Is Beaten Off.

The second race, a selling affair at a mile and a sixteenth, was captured in a common gallop by Mrs. M. V. Daly's old plater Cromwell. The outstanding feature of the contest was the disgraceful exhibition of J. H. Tevis's Tribune, the even money favorite, which followed an excellent performance on Saturday by lying down and playing dead yesterday. The colt had no speed at any stage and was beaten off by the five other starters.

Cromwell took the lead in the first half and capered past the judges at the close five lengths ahead of Mrs. M. McKee's Star Court. The latter, after dropping back at the final turn, came again in the last furlong to take the place from Halu by half a length. Star Court was the medium for a heavy play, being backed down from the opening price of 6 to 1 to close at 18 to 5.

The Stewards of the Jockey Club present took speedy action on the showing of Tribune, which is trained by W. H. Ryan. A meeting was convoked immediately after the race, and this resolution was passed:

"The further entry of the horse Tribune is refused for all races at this meeting, owing to his unsatisfactory performance in the second race of this day."
