welcome to the 24th annual UPTOWN ARTS STROLL

NoMAA's 24th annual Uptown Arts Stroll is officially launched! This year's Stroll Guide is again evidence of the exciting and enriching work produced by the multitude of artists and arts organizations in West Harlem, Washington Heights, and Inwood.

Please come celebrate the Stroll's Opening Event on Monday, June 1st from 6-8:30pm on the Audubon Terrace where you'll meet this year's illustrious honorees, take in the sounds of National Jazz Museum of Harlem's Langston Hughes II, and have the chance to visit on-site exhibitions at the Hispanic Society Museum & Library and the American Academy of Arts and Letters.

Each year NoMAA holds a poster contest to choose the Arts Stroll's emblem. Congratulations to 2026's first-place contest winner Marta Blair for her striking design! We also wish to acknowledge second place winner Margo Moore and third place winner José Carmona.

To all the artists and arts organizations represented in this guide, you are the pulse of the Stroll and of Northern Manhattan – thank you! To our supporters, donors, volunteers, community and business partners, the Stroll doesn't happen without you. Finally, we extend special thanks to our tireless Board Chair Luis A. Miranda, Jr., dedicated board members Sandra García-Betancourt, Carol Jenkins, and Lenny Lazzarino, and new member Aneiry Batista. Thank you!

Bienvenidos a la 24ª edición del PASEO DE LAS ARTES

¡La 24.ª edición anual del Uptown Arts Stroll de NoMAA ha sido inaugurada oficialmente! La Guía del Stroll de este año es, una vez más, prueba del emocionante y enriquecedor trabajo producido por la multitud de artistas y organizaciones artísticas de West Harlem, Washington Heights, e Inwood.

Les invitamos a celebrar el evento de inauguración del Stroll el lunes 1ro de junio, de 6:00 p. m. a 8:30 p. m., en el Audubon Terrace; allí podrán conocer a los ilustres homenajeados de este año, disfrutar de los sonidos de Langston Hughes II (del National Jazz Museum of Harlem) y tener la oportunidad de visitar las exposiciones in situ en el Hispanic Society Museum & Library y en la American Academy of Arts and Letters.

Cada año, NoMAA organiza un concurso para elegir el cartel del Arts Stroll. ¡Felicidades a la ganadora del primer lugar de 2026, Marta Blair, por su impactante diseño! También queremos reconocer a la ganadora del segundo lugar, Margo Moore, y al ganador del tercer lugar, José Carmona.

A todos los artistas y las organizaciones artísticas representados en esta guía: ustedes son el pulso del Stroll y del norte de Manhattan. ¡Gracias! A nuestros patrocinadores, donantes, voluntarios y socios comunitarios y empresariales: el Stroll no sería posible sin ustedes. Por último, extendemos un agradecimiento especial a nuestro incansable presidente de la Junta Directiva, Luis A. Miranda, Jr.; a los dedicados miembros de la Junta: Sandra García-Betancourt, Carol Jenkins, Lenny Lazzarino; y a la nueva integrante, Aneiry Batista. ¡Gracias!

2026 Honorees/Homenajeados

Joyce Adewumi is a distinguished cultural ambassador, internationally acclaimed vocalist specializing in African art songs, and visionary arts leader bridging continents and communities. Born in Nigeria, she trained and taught at leading universities, shaping generations of artists.

She is Founder and President of the New York African Chorus Ensemble, Inc. (NYACE) and creator of the NYC Multicultural Festival, now in its 17th year. She is also the creator and producer of the documentary We Are the Endless Roar and founder of The Return of the Ancestors ToursTM.

Her honors include the Martin Luther King, Jr. World Harmony Award, SDG Excellence Award at the United Nations, and proclamations from NYC leadership. In Nigeria, she is Yeye Asoludero of Ikun-Ekiti and Asiwaju Awo of New York State.

She serves as President of the 30th Precinct Community Council and Co-Chair of Manhattan Community Board 9's Economic Development Committee.

Reynaldo García Pantaleón translates the hopes and fears that confront us in everyday life into paintings, drawings, music, photography, video, printmaking, and objects. The evolution of his work can be seen across numerous group shows and solo shows throughout the world. His artwork is found in private collections and in public collections such as the Smithsonian American Art Museum, the Metropolitan Museum of Art, El Museo Del Barrio, and El Museo Latino.

Reynaldo has collaborated with many community groups and artists throughout the years as an artist, graphic designer, printmaker, educator, musician, and music producer, and he was a member of Luis "Terror" Días's NYC band Las Maravillas. He has worked at The People's Forum, Word Up Community Bookshop, Hispanic Society, and Gregorio Luperón High School. A founding member of the Dominican York Proyecto GRAFICA, Reynaldo now leads Realengo Studio, a collaborative entity that develops artistic projects in NYC and abroad.

Born in the Dominican Republic in 1967, and residing in New York City since 1995, Reynaldo studied at the Universidad Autónoma de Santo Domingo and at the Art Students League in New York.

Michael Palma, a lifelong West Harlem resident, is the founding Executive Director of the West Harlem Arts Alliance, with over 25 years in the arts and nonprofit sectors. He holds an MFA and BA from Columbia University and has extensive experience in capital planning and organizational development.

His expertise includes strategic planning, fundraising, and marketing, with a focus on supporting Latino theater and dance. He has worked with organizations such as the Puerto Rican Traveling Theatre, INTAR, Teatro Círculo, TeatroStageFest, and Repertorio Español, and has served as a panelist for NYC Department of Cultural Affairs, NYS Council on the Arts, and Columbia University.

A community advocate, Palma is a leader in the Montefiore Park Neighborhood Association and a longtime member of Manhattan Community Board 9. He is also a photographer, educator, and board member of En Foco, and remains active in housing and arts initiatives in West Harlem.

Mayra Linares-Garcia has over 20 years of public affairs and communications experience. As VP of Public Affairs and Communications for Liberty Coca-Cola Beverages, she bridges communities and their leaders with one of the world's most recognizable brands. Previously, Mayra served as the Director of Latino Affairs for New York State. Prior to that, she founded a community partnership-focused public affairs firm and served as a Democratic District Leader. Mayra serves as a City University of New York trustee. She holds a B.A. in Political Science and Community Leadership from Marymount Manhattan College and lives in Marble Hill with her family.

Morris-Jumel Mansion, on the edge of Sugar Hill and Washington Heights, is the oldest surviving home in Manhattan. Built in 1765, its mission is to preserve, collect, and interpret history, culture, and the arts exploring inclusive narratives that engage and inspire diverse audiences. Key goals are to make the Mansion "a place to which audiences return over time," creating lasting impressions through the architecture, collections, and stories, and to incorporate community voices. For the 2025 exhibition celebrating the Mansion's anniversary, What the House Saw: 260 Years of Stories from the Morris-Jumel Mansion Collection & Community, local residents were invited to contribute objects from their own collections. Community members responded enthusiastically, lending items such as two letters from Langston Hughes, personal materials from poet, playwright, and educator Larry Neal, and historic photographs of the Mansion and the surrounding park. These contributions expanded the Museum's ability to represent the full breadth of the site's history.

Josiane M.H. Pozi: In Pursuit of Feeling

Josiane M.H. Pozi (b.1998; London, UK) attempts to meet experience where it is. In Pursuit of Feeling takes up that practice & presents films & videos Pozi made over the last eight years, remixed & rearranged into an installation. Viewing these impressions, you encounter filmmaking that is as simple & as complex as life is.

Lucy Sante: Knots

Lucy Sante (b. 1954; Verviers, Belgium) has been making collages since her teenage years in New Jersey, a practice she has sustained alongside her prolific writing career. Sante describes her collages as "tightly held knots of ambiguity, like the best poems." This exhibition in our Library presents collages made over the last five years, plus one early work from the late 1970s.
