FINANCIAL & CONTRACTUAL CONDITIONS

SUMMER 2027

What happens after submitting an application?

- We review all applications carefully to ensure a balanced representation of age groups and nationalities among the children attending our summer camps.
- The admission process is selective. Places are not allocated on a first-come, first-served basis.
- Upon admission, you will receive a notification along with an invoice for the non-refundable deposit per child, per session (CHF 1,000.-).
- Once the non-refundable deposit is paid, you will receive an invoice for the camp fees and pocket money.
- If you are not admitted, your application may be placed on the Waiting List instead. In this instance, no payment will be required, as there is no guarantee that a place will become available before the camp begins.
- Enrolment is confirmed upon full payment. Without payment within the timeframe specified on the invoice, the place is relinquished.

A/ Payment terms

I/ When admitted between November and February:

- The CHF 1,000.- deposit is payable upon receipt of the invoice.
- The subsequent invoice for the camp fees and pocket money must be settled within 30 days of the billing date.

II/ When admitted after 1st March:

- Any admission will require a single full payment upon receipt of the invoice, including the non-refundable deposit, camp fees, and pocket money.

III/ Conditions:

- A student may not start the camp if any outstanding fees are still unpaid.
- The sum of CHF 150.- from the pocket money will be held until the last day for possible unexpected expenses. The remaining pocket money is given to the child upon departure.
- Camp fees are quoted in Swiss Francs (CHF). If a payment is made in a foreign currency, the official exchange rate of the day of the transaction will be used. Any difference in favour of the payee will be credited, or, in the case of a shortfall, a further payment will be invoiced.

B/ Fees include

- Full board and accommodation (at certain camps or special activities, in tents or mountain refuges), according to age.
- Provision of bed linen and towels.
- Full laundry service (dry cleaning is not available).
- Classes, sports, arts, and activities offered within the programme, including associated coaching and material.
- Evening activities, excursions, and weekend activities.

This is a travel insurance and assistance solution providing cover in the event of a medical emergency resulting from illness or accident. If the child's health/accident insurance in his/her country of residence does not cover the costs abroad or if the child does not have health/accident insurance, our insurance is activated to cover the costs in Switzerland during the camp. In all cases, our company will contact the child's health insurance, if it exists.
- Personal liability insurance and local residence taxes in Rolle and Gstaad.

E/ Multimedia

Please be advised that photographs and videos taken during the camps may be used in our multimedia platforms (and Rosey World camps), such as brochures, presentation videos, social media profiles, and our website. If you do not wish us to publish any image in which your child appears, please send an email to media@roseycamps.ch before the start of the camp.

F/ Data processing

Personal data provided by children and their parents or produced by the office during the admission process or linked with the education provided at the camps is used for admissions, teaching on and off-campus, all activities, life in the boarding house and the supply of goods and services to students. This data may also be used for communication, statistics, and anonymised for promotional purposes.

To fulfil these objectives, Le Rosey Camps may also communicate personal data to other third parties such as suppliers of educational or administrative tools. This data may be stored in Switzerland or abroad and may also be transmitted if necessary to meet legal requirements in Switzerland.

We may use video surveillance in certain public and communal areas for the safety of all and to identify behaviour contrary to the Codes.

Parents undertake to provide all relevant information regarding their children's education, health and well-being, in particular any medical and psychological information, any psycho-educational assessment and any relevant information concerning the family circumstances.

Any questions or requests relating to data processing should be sent in writing to flaurent@rosey.ch.

G/ Contractual agreement and litigation

The participant's parents confirm their agreement with the conditions set out in this document and the expectations set forth in the Camp Codes. By agreeing to this document, the parents agree to abide by these policies. The contractual agreement between the parents, the child and the camp is, in the final instance, subject to Swiss law.

Should there be any case of litigation between the camp, the students and the parents, this will be judged by courts in the Canton of Vaud (Switzerland). The term "parents" used in this document is understood to refer to the child's legal representative.

A note about external representatives:
Families are free to choose whether to enrol their children directly or to use an intermediary to do so. External representatives such as educational consultants and agents do not influence enrolment decisions or order of importance on the waiting list. Le Rosey does not ask for, nor does it accept, donations for school development of any kind.
